Anticipated Attendance: 3,500

Group Description

The ENA mission is to advance excellence in emergency nursing. ENA's vision is to be the premier organization for the emergency nursing community worldwide.

Derived from the vision of ENA's co-founders Judith Kelleher and Anita Dorr, ENA's priorities are guided by these values and beliefs. ENA believes:

- In the inclusion and contributions of nursing, in collaboration with healthcare partners worldwide, to explore innovative solutions to the challenges of emergency care delivery.
- Compassion is an essential element of the emergency nursing profession.
- Should embrace inclusion, diversity and mutual respect in all interactions and initiatives to promote the essential value of different perspectives and experiences within emergency nursing.
- Visit ENA's Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity webpage for more on how they work to create a healthy and welcoming environment for ENA staff and members
- In a team-based delivery of resources that meet the highest quality standards of excellence for patients and emergency nurses.
- Emergency care evolves through lifelong learning and a culture of inquiry for the discovery and integration of evidence-based research into emergency nursing practice.
- The spirit of philanthropy allows the advancement of the profession of emergency nursing and improves the lives of patients throughout the world.
- They place the highest value on our members for their contributions to the care of patients and their families, the emergency nursing profession, and our organization.

Conference Profile

Emergency Nursing 2023 is the premier event for emergency nursing education, networking and advocacy. By attending EN23, you'll have access to more than 75 concurrent sessions representing the best clinical education for emergency nurses, in addition to inspiring special, interactive sessions and many formal and informal opportunities to connect with the professional community and experts in the field. You will have access to new knowledge you can then apply to your practice for better patient outcomes.
