Anticipated Attendance: 6,000

Group Description

The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma & Immunology (AAAAI) is a professional organization with more than 6,300 members in the United States, Canada and 68 other countries. This membership includes allergists/immunologists, other medical specialists, allied health and related healthcare professionals - all with a special interest in the research and treatment of allergic and immunologic diseases. This year, AAAAI / WAO (World Allergy Organization) will have a Joint Congress to explore the critical intersection of climate change and allergic diseases and explore their profound global implications on health.

Attendee Profile

The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma & Immunology (AAAAI) Annual Meeting in San Diego attracts a diverse group of professionals involved in allergy, asthma, and immunology. This includes allergists and immunologists, who are specialists in diagnosing and treating a wide range of immune system-related conditions, as well as pulmonologists who focus on respiratory diseases like asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). Attendees will learn from, and connect with, renowned experts from across the globe, discover cutting-edge research and make connections that will last a lifetime. Together, we'll turn ideas into action, connect with purpose and create lasting impact.
