American Association of
NURSE PRACTITIONERS®

American Association of Nurse Practitioners
American Association of Nurse Practitioners 2025 National Conference
Tuesday, June 17th – Sunday, June 22nd, 2025
Anticipated Attendance: 6,500

Group Description

The American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) is the largest professional organization representing nurse practitioners (NPs) in the United States. Established in 1985, AANP advocates for the NP role, promotes excellence in practice, education, and research, and provides resources and support for its members. The organization offers continuing education, professional development, and networking opportunities for NPs, while also advocating for policies that enhance NP practice authority and patient access to NP services. AANP plays a crucial role in advancing the NP profession and improving healthcare outcomes.

Attendee Profile

The American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) 2025 National Conference attracts a diverse group of attendees. These include nurse practitioners (NPs) from all specialties, NP students, retired NPs, and international advanced practice nurses. The conference offers over 330 sessions and workshops, making it a valuable event for professional development and continuing education across various areas of practice. Student members benefit from discounted registration fees, while retired NPs have opportunities to remain engaged with the profession.
