Avid Summer Institute 2025 – Program 2
Wednesday, July 30th – Friday, August 1st, 2025
Anticipated Attendance: 4,000

Group Description

The AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) Summer Institute is a professional development event organized by the AVID organization. AVID is a nonprofit organization that provides educators with training and resources to help students develop academic and social skills needed for college and career success. The AVID Summer Institute typically brings together educators from around the world who are involved in the AVID program. During the institute, participants engage in workshops, seminars, and networking opportunities aimed at enhancing their knowledge and skills in implementing the AVID methodologies and strategies in their schools or educational settings. These strategies often focus on areas such as critical thinking, collaboration, organization, and inquiry-based learning.

Attendee Profile

Attendees include classroom teachers, administrators, counselors, and support staff who seek to enhance their knowledge and skills in implementing AVID strategies to prepare students for college and career success.
