Neural Information Processing Systems Foundation
NeurIPS Conference 2025
Monday, December 1st – Saturday, December 6th, 2025
Anticipated Attendance: 20,000

Group Description

Neural Information Processing Systems Foundation (NeurIPS) is a non-profit organization whose aim is to foster the exchange of research on neural information processing systems, spanning biological, mathematical, theoretical, and technological perspectives. The NeurIPS Conference is one of the leading conferences globally in machine learning, artificial intelligence, statistics, and computational neuroscience.

Attendee Profile

NeurIPS attracts a highly diverse crowd of attendees, from academic researchers (professors, postdocs, PhD students) to industry practitioners (machine learning engineers, data scientists, R&D leads) and technical staff from major tech companies or AI startups.
