Group Description

The National Indian Gaming Association (NIGA), established in 1985, is a non-profit organization of 184 Indian Nations with other non-voting associate members representing organizations, tribes and businesses engaged in tribal gaming enterprises from around the country. The common commitment and purpose of NIGA is to advance the lives of Indian peoples economically, socially and politically. NIGA operates as a clearinghouse and educational, legislative and public policy resource for tribes, policymakers and the public on Indian gaming issues and tribal community development. The mission of NIGA is to protect and preserve the general welfare of tribes striving for self-sufficiency through gaming enterprises in Indian Country. To fulfill its mission, NIGA works with the Federal government and Congress to develop sound policies and practices and to provide technical assistance and advocacy on gaming-related issues. In addition, NIGA seeks to maintain and protect Indian sovereign governmental authority in Indian Country.

Attendee Profile

The Indian Gaming Tradeshow & Convention is a premier event for the tribal gaming community, bringing together a diverse group of attendees, including tribal leaders, gaming industry executives, policymakers, and suppliers. The 2026 convention in San Diego is expected to draw many participants from across the tribal gaming sector, including representatives from various tribes, gaming enterprises, and industry vendors. The event will feature educational sessions, networking opportunities, and an extensive exhibition hall showcasing the latest products and services in the gaming industry.
